Attention Females interested in the IT field

The NCWIT award young women at the high-school level for their computing-related achievements and interests. The Award offers both national and local “affiliate” competitions to generate support and visibility for women’s participation in communities nationwide. With the help of SC Pathways and Winthrop University, IT-oLogy is launching the first South Carolina Affiliate Award, and we are looking to get the word out of girls interested in computing.

Please go to <http://ww2.ncwit.org/award/award.index.php> and complete the application. Applications close on October 31. We will be awarding 5 prizes this year (iPads for winners) and will be hosting the awards ceremony at IT-oLogy on April 27, 2013.

SENIOR NEWS ALERT!!!

How do I apply to college? What scholarships are available? How do I request my transcripts? If you have asked yourself these questions and more, find the answers in Senior Memo #2, now available to you via email!
