Pre-ACT and PSAT/NMSQT Test Information

The state of South Carolina is offering the Pre-ACT test to all 10th grade students for FREE.

The Pre-ACT will be administered at school on Wednesday, September 21, 2016. The test will take approximately two hours and 15 minutes. If you have any questions regarding the Pre-ACT, please call Ms. Burgess at 821-3405.

In addition to the state providing a free opportunity for your student to take the Pre-ACT, our school will also offer the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT) test to all 10th grade students for $15.

Please see Mr. McCormack in the Main Office to sign up for the PSAT.

Any 11th grader that wants to try and qualify for the National Merit Scholarship should sign up.

Important: If you student has an IEP or 504 and requires accommodations for PSAT testing, your student must sign up by Friday, August 26 so that school personnel have enough time to assist you in applying for these accommodations through the College Board. If you have any questions regarding the PSAT, please call Mr. McCormack at 821-3409.
